EATING IN THE ORANGERY

To limit the amount of people queuing please send one person from your table to order at the till, giving your table number.

Food and drinks will be served to you at your table.

When you have finished dining we will collect the items from your table and sanitise it for the next guests.

Our services and facilities are cared for and provided by community members, many of whom are volunteers. We are an international Christian community with team members coming from many different nations. For some, English is their second language so please bear with them.

If there is any difficulty which a team member cannot help with, please ask for the supervisor on duty.

Thank you, we hope you enjoy your time here with us.
